

M/J United States History

CPALMS 2100010 | Grade 7 | Fall Semester | 5 Days/Week | 250 min/week

Family
Course
Overview

Note for Families: This overview reflects the planned course structure. Specific assignments, pacing, and assessments may be adjusted by your teacher. Always refer to your Canvas course for the most current information.

A study of United States history from the age of European exploration through the founding of the constitutional republic, covering colonization, revolution, and the establishment of American government.

Semester at a Glance

Quarter 1 — Weeks 1–9

- Wk 1 European Exploration and the Discovery of America
- Wk 2 Spanish Conquistadors Make Latin America
- Wk 3 Great Powers Competition: Spain, France, England Compete in the New World
- Wk 4 Atlantic Trade Routes and the Slave Trade
- Wk 5 The First English Settlements: Jamestown and Chesapeake
- Wk 6 The Puritans at Plymouth Rock
- Wk 7 New England Puritanism and the English Civil War
- Wk 8 Mid-Atlantic and Southern Colonies
- Wk 9 Colonial Self-Government: Assemblies, Charters, and the Roots of Representative Government

Quarter 2 — Weeks 10–18

- Wk 10 The French and Indian War
- Wk 11 British Policy and Colonial Grievances Part I: 1763–1770
- Wk 12 British Policy and Colonial Grievances Part II: 1770–1776
- Wk 13 The Road to Revolution: The Patriots
- Wk 14 The Declaration of Independence
- Wk 15 The American Revolution Part I: Early Campaigns
- Wk 16 The American Revolution Part II: Turning Points, Alliances, and Victory
- Wk 17 The Articles of Confederation and the Constitutional Convention
- Wk 18 Ratification, the Bill of Rights, and the Presidency of George Washington

What a Typical Week Looks Like

Readings & Lessons

- READ 2–3 assigned readings or lesson pages in Canvas per module
- DISC 1 discussion post with a question prompt, plus replies to classmates

Assignments & Assessments

- PROJECT 1 module project (analysis, graphic organizer, or short essay) per unit
- QUIZ Reading comprehension quiz at the end of each reading assignment
- EXAM Module exam at the conclusion of each major unit

Weekly Time Commitment

- Class meets 5 days/week, totaling 250 minutes of instruction per week
- Estimated additional independent work: 1–2 hours/week
- Discussion posts typically due mid-week; assignments by Friday

What Students Need

- Reliable internet access and a Canvas-compatible device
- A Canvas account (provided by the school)
- Notebook or digital document for notes
- All readings provided in Canvas — no textbook purchase required

On-Demand Students

Work through modules at your own pace within the semester window. Deadlines appear in Canvas — aim to complete at least one section per day. Reach your teacher via Canvas messages.

Live School Students

Follow a structured weekly schedule with live sessions. Readings open Monday; discussions due Wednesday; projects and quizzes due Friday. Attend live sessions and check Canvas daily.