

World History

CPALMS 2109310 | Grade 9 | Fall Semester | 5 Days/Week | 250 min/week

Family
Course
Overview

Note for Families: This overview reflects the planned course structure. Specific assignments, pacing, and assessments may be adjusted by your teacher. Always refer to your Canvas course for the most current information.

An in-depth study of world civilizations from the fall of Rome through the Age of Revolution, including Byzantine, Islamic, European medieval, Asian, and early modern history.

Semester at a Glance

Quarter 1 — Weeks 1–9

- Wk 1 The Fall of Rome and the Rise of the Byzantine Empire
- Wk 2 The Early Middle Ages: Feudalism and Catholic Church
- Wk 3 Charlemagne and the Franks
- Wk 4 Britain: Anglo-Saxon Invasion, Viking, and Norman Conquest
- Wk 5 The Byzantine Empire’s Decline
- Wk 6 Islam: Arab Empires
- Wk 7 Islam: Ottoman Turks
- Wk 8 The Crusades
- Wk 9 High and Late Middle Ages: Black Death and Hundred Years War

Quarter 2 — Weeks 10–18

- Wk 10 The Renaissance: Italian City-States, Humanism, and the Arts
- Wk 11 The Reformation and Counter-Reformation: Luther, Calvin, Henry VIII, and the Church’s Response
- Wk 12 The Scientific Revolution: From Medieval Thought to the New Science
- Wk 13 East Asia During Middle Ages
- Wk 14 The Voyages of Discovery
- Wk 15 New World Colonies and Atlantic Slave Trade
- Wk 16 Absolute and Constitutional Monarchy: France, England, Spain, and Russia
- Wk 17 The Enlightenment: Philosophy and Political Theory
- Wk 18 Revolutions: American, French, and Napoleon

What a Typical Week Looks Like

Readings & Lessons

- READ 2–3 assigned readings or lesson pages in Canvas per module
- DISC 1 discussion post with a question prompt, plus replies to classmates

Assignments & Assessments

- PROJECT 1 module project (analysis, graphic organizer, or short essay) per unit
- QUIZ Reading comprehension quiz at the end of each reading assignment
- EXAM Module exam at the conclusion of each major unit

Weekly Time Commitment

- Class meets 5 days/week, totaling 250 minutes of instruction per week
- Estimated additional independent work: 1–2 hours/week
- Discussion posts typically due mid-week; assignments by Friday

What Students Need

- Reliable internet access and a Canvas-compatible device
- A Canvas account (provided by the school)
- Notebook or digital document for notes
- All readings provided in Canvas — no textbook purchase required

On-Demand Students

Work through modules at your own pace within the semester window. Deadlines appear in Canvas — aim to complete at least one section per day. Reach your teacher via Canvas messages.

Live School Students

Follow a structured weekly schedule with live sessions. Readings open Monday; discussions due Wednesday; projects and quizzes due Friday. Attend live sessions and check Canvas daily.