

About this overview. This document is an example of how the course might be taught. This page is drawn from the Florida course description rather than a built Optima course, so the specific units, texts, and activities scholars see will be set by the teacher and may vary between the live school and On-Demand. Each teacher also leans into their own strengths and passions; the structure, expectations, and time commitment below are representative of the course as designed.

M/J Latin, Advanced is the third course in the middle-school Latin sequence (Beginning, Intermediate, Advanced) and completes it. Scholars deepen their command of Latin reading and composition at the Intermediate proficiency level while continuing the study of Roman culture, history, and the connections between Latin and English. The sequence carries real high-school weight: the state notes that Beginning plus Intermediate are equivalent to Latin 1, and all three courses together may be equivalent to Latin 1 and Latin 2 — high-school placement is determined by the school.

THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

1 Reading Latin (Intermediate)

Narratives, stories, and adapted literary selections; finding main ideas and details and using context for unfamiliar vocabulary and idiom.

3 Speaking and Presenting (Intermediate)

Retelling and summarizing stories, short skits and presentations, and describing events in order with connected sentences.

5 Roman Culture and Connections (all year)

Roman history, geography, daily life, and contributions; Latin's reach into other subjects — and into English through roots, structures, and cognates.

2 Listening (Intermediate)

Understanding spoken Latin in stories, directions, and presentations on familiar topics.

4 Writing (Intermediate)

Connected sentences and short narratives in Latin; drafting, editing, and a research-based report.

A TYPICAL WEEK

- Daily Latin: reading, translation, and composition built on the grammar of the first two courses.
- New vocabulary and forms applied immediately in stories and sentences.
- Regular retelling, summary, and presentation work, with culture study woven in.
- English connections throughout: derivatives, roots, and structural comparisons.

TIME COMMITMENT

250 minutes / week

≈ 50 minutes a day, Monday–Friday

- Daily lesson and practice fill most of the scheduled time.
- Projects and presentations may run a little longer.

WHAT SCHOLARS NEED

- A computer with reliable internet and access to Canvas.
- A Latin notebook for vocabulary, paradigms, and translations.
- Course texts as assigned by the teacher (typically provided in the course).

On-Demand (asynchronous). Scholars move through the course at their own pace, with due dates to keep the year on track. An Optima teacher is available throughout for support, feedback, and grading.

Live school. Live-school scholars take this same course on Optima's VR campus with a teacher and classmates, meeting daily on the middle-school schedule.
