

Spanish 2

OPTIMA ACADEMY ONLINE · FAMILY COURSE OVERVIEW · GRADES 9–12 · FULL YEAR · 1 CREDIT

~4¼ hrs per week · 50 min/day, M–F

About this overview. This document is an example of how the course might be taught. This page is drawn from the Florida course description rather than a built Optima course, so the specific units, materials, and activities scholars see will be set by the teacher and may vary between the live school and On-Demand. Each teacher also leans into their own strengths and passions; the structure, expectations, and time commitment below are representative of the course as designed.

Spanish 2 reinforces the foundation built in Spanish 1 and pushes it into the Intermediate range. Oral communication remains the primary objective, while reading and writing take on noticeably more weight: scholars move from memorized phrases to creating their own connected sentences and paragraphs. The cultural survey of the Spanish-speaking world continues throughout, from daily life and traditions to historic and contemporary figures. By year's end scholars can handle everyday conversations, read short authentic texts, and write organized paragraphs on familiar topics.

THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

1 Listening (Intermediate Low–Mid)

Main ideas and essential details in conversations, presentations, stories, and media on familiar topics.

3 Conversation (Intermediate Low–Mid)

Initiating and sustaining conversations, interviews, expressing feelings and opinions, and solving everyday problems in Spanish.

5 Writing (Intermediate Low–Mid)

Narratives, descriptions, and supported opinions in connected sentences; researching and writing a detailed plan.

2 Reading (Intermediate Low–Mid)

Short literary texts and everyday authentic materials — ads, menus, schedules, announcements — using context clues.

4 Presenting (Intermediate Low–Mid)

Describing people and situations in connected sentences, recounting events in order, and presenting short skits.

6 Culture and Connections (all year)

Practices, products, and perspectives across the Spanish-speaking world; explorers, artists, musicians, and athletes; comparisons with one's own language and culture.

A TYPICAL WEEK

- Daily practice in Spanish across listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
- New structures and vocabulary applied immediately in conversation and short exchanges.
- Regular speaking and writing tasks that grow from sentences toward connected paragraphs.
- Authentic materials and culture woven through the week.

TIME COMMITMENT

250 minutes / week

≈ 50 minutes a day, Monday–Friday

- Daily lesson and practice fill most of the scheduled time.
- Speaking assessments and presentation weeks may run a little longer.

WHAT SCHOLARS NEED

- A computer with reliable internet and access to Canvas.
- Headphones and a microphone for listening and speaking practice.
- A notebook for vocabulary, structures, and culture notes.

On-Demand (asynchronous). Scholars move through the course at their own pace, with due dates to keep the year on track. An Optima teacher is available throughout for support, feedback, and grading.

Live school. Live-school scholars take this same course on Optima's VR campus with a teacher and classmates, meeting daily on the school's schedule.
